Watson and Associates Literacy Center Endowment Report

Unparalleled Commitment to the Community

Jim and Judy Watson have had a tremendous impact at CSUSB and in the larger community. The Watsons' unwavering belief in the importance of education and literacy prompted them to establish the Watson & Associates Literacy Center in 2004, which provides students in need with access to interactive tutoring and specialized supplemental programs.

The Watsons' generosity also extends outside the College of Education, as they are strong supporters of the arts at CSUSB. Additionally, in 2011, Judy Watson served as honorary chairperson for the Latino Education and Advocacy Days (LEAD) summit at CSUSB, where she was affectionately referred to as "La Madrina de Honor," or godmother.

Redefining the Future of our Youth

Jim and Judy Watson's unwavering commitment to education and literacy has had a life-changing impact on our communities. Through their selfless generosity, Jim and Judy are providing access to interactive tutoring and specialized supplemental programs to K-12 students, transforming their lives and opening the doors of opportunity to those in greatest need.

Judy Rodriguez Watson Public Art Project

We look forward to the unveiling of the COE Mural, where we can showcase your passion and dedication to the arts, along with the talent and creativity of our students.

The Art of Community

Your support through the Judy Rodriguez Watson Public Art Fund has created projects that allow student artists to collaborate in meaningful works that not only hone their skills, but also beautify the local community.

Together Greater

Your guidance, Jim and Judy, has been instrumental in positioning CSUSB among the top institutions in the region and country. Your generosity and vision have propelled us to new heights and transform lives each and every day.

Art is transformative and powerful, and thanks to your generosity, you have allowed us to provide venues for our students to express themselves. We are ever so grateful for your support of our students, and of CSUSB.
